

Coffee City

Policy Related to the Number of Reserve Police Officers allowed by the Coffee City Police Department

Effective immediately, the City Council of Coffee City will authorize the number of Reserve Police Officers for the Coffee City Police Department to a maximum of fifteen officers.

All individuals considered as candidates for Reserve Police Officer shall be recommended by the Chief of Police and approved by the City Council prior to being offered a position as a Reserve Police Officer with the Coffee City Police Department.

This will include new candidates and any former officers requesting reinstatement with the Coffee City Police Department.

All candidates for Reserve Police Officer shall provide proof of licensure through the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement, proof of citizenship, proof of high school diploma or equivalency and meet all other necessary licensure requirements prior to appointment as a Reserve Police Officer.

If a candidate is appointed as a Reserve Police Officer, he or she may not begin the Field Training Process prior to licensure approval through the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement, without an active weapons qualification within the previous twelve months, and before assignment to a Field Training Officer.

Local Government Code, Sec. 341.012. POLICE RESERVE FORCE.

- (a) The governing body of a municipality may provide for the establishment of a police reserve force.
- (b) The governing body shall establish qualifications and standards of training for members of the reserve force.
- (c) The governing body may limit the size of the reserve force.
- (d) The chief of police shall appoint the members of the reserve force. Members serve at the chief's discretion.
- (e) The chief of police may call the reserve force into service at any time the chief considers it necessary to have additional officers to preserve the peace and enforce the law.
- (f) A member of a reserve force who is not a peace officer as described by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, may act as a peace officer only during the actual discharge of official duties.
- (g) An appointment to the reserve force must be approved by the governing body before the person appointed may carry a weapon or otherwise act as a peace officer. On approval of the appointment of a member who is not a peace officer as described by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, the person appointed may carry a weapon only when authorized to do so by the chief of police and only when discharging official duties as a peace officer.

(h) Reserve police officers may act only in a supplementary capacity to the regular police force and may not assume the full-time duties of regular police officers without complying with the requirements for regular police officers. On approval of the appointment of a member who is a peace officer as described by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, the chief of police may authorize the person appointed to carry a weapon or act as a peace officer at all times, regardless of whether the person is engaged in the actual discharge of official duties, or may limit the authority of the person to carry a weapon or act as a peace officer to only those times during which the person is engaged in the actual discharge of official duties. A reserve police officer, regardless of whether the reserve police officer is a peace officer as described by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, is not:

(1) eligible for participation in any program provided by the governing body that is normally considered a financial benefit of full-time employment or for any pension fund created by statute for the benefit of full-time paid peace officers; or

(2) exempt from Chapter 1702, Occupations Code.

(i) This section does not limit the authority of the mayor of a Type A general-law municipality to summon a special police force under Section 341.011.

Acts 1987, 70th Leg., ch. 149, Sec. 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1987. Amended by Acts 1999, 76th Leg., ch. 90, Sec. 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1999; Acts 2001, 77th Leg., ch. 1420, Sec. 14.825, eff. Sept. 1, 2001.

Dated: November 14, 2016

Mayor

Attest:

City Secretary